WOMEN'S BURDENS ARE NUMEROUS.

Peruana Is a Godsend To Thousands of Women.

Woman is burdened with hundreds of duties, some very weighty, some apparently insignificant; all in the American, an overwhelming load.

It is no wonder when they get nervous, irritable, weary and weak.

Ability of any kind is due to care, and care will attack that organ which is the weakest.

There are tens of thousands of suffering women who could be relieved of their trials if they were duly conversant with the power of Peruana in relieving carriagelights of every character.

Do Not Fail to Read Mrs. Fry's Noteable Experience.

Mrs. Sarah Fry, 20 Sylvan Ave., West Asbury Park, N. J., writes:

"I have no words to express my gratitude for the wonderful cure Peruana has done for me. It is a Godsend to all suffering women."

"I was sick over half my life with systemic catarrh. Nearly all my life I have spent all I could make for doctors, but none of them did me any good, but since I started on your Peruana one year ago, I have at last found relief."

"I hope and pray you may live long to help others as you have helped me. Instead of being a failing drug store, I am growing fat and doing well."

poorly-dressed man. His black face looked troubled as he met the Judge.

"How old are you?" asked Judge Wofford.

"Twenty years," said the negro.

"Well," said the Judge, "you're guilty of murder all right, but you're a poor, ignorant, no-account black man, and I don't want to hang you."

"You have no friends. You have no money. You have no one to plead for you. You were insane when you killed this man. If I sentence you to hang, you will hang just as soon as there is a God in heaven." That will not be a whole lot of women circuiting petitions to save your neck. There will not be 500 lots of fool men writing letters to the Governor to save you. No one will send you flowers. You'll just be forgotten until the day of your hanging, and then they'll hang you. You are guilty of murder in the second degree, aren't you?"

The negro had been looking at Wofford at the Judge. He expected to be sentenced to death. He stood resolute forward, his mouth open.

"Yes, Judge. Your honor, I'm guilty of that," he answered quickly.

"You are. Then I'll sentence you to 30 years in the penitentiary."

The negro did not dance, but he came very near it, and he said, as he sat down:

"Thank you, Judge."

Cooper killed James Taylor, another negro. Taylor had killed two men in his career, and was known as a bad negro.

A CALL.

Pursuant to a call of the Chairman of the Third Congressional District, the Republicans of Butler county are hereby called to meet in mass convention at Morgantown, Ky., on the 14th day of July, 1906, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the 3rd Congressional Convention at Bowling Green, Ky., on the 16th day of July, 1906, for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate for Congress in the said district.

This June 11, 1906.

C. HOLMAN, Chmn.

Republicans turn out to the Convention here, Saturday, to select delegates to the District Congressional Convention at Bowling Green.

There was a slight fire from an exploding lamp in Attorney General Moody's kitchen last week. If he don't look out, the Standard Oil Company is liable to mix nitroglycerine with the next can they send him.

C. B. Burhans testifies after four years.

G. B. Burhans, of Corliss Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. I entirely stopped the drink due to sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble. For sale by A. T. Dickey."

The Public Printer will be fully employed till the next meeting of Congress, explaining how that $3,000,000 appropriation got into the Sundry Civil Bill after both houses had voted to cut it out.

WAS IN POOR HEALTH FOR YEARS.

Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining and marked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes. For sale by A. T. Dickey.

It is now stated that the packing house exposures cost the Chicago magnates $20,000,000 in ten days. With the per capita circulation of the country only $32, it will take some time for them to get all of this back out of the consumer.

Every form of distressing ailment known as Piles originates internally. The real cause of the trouble is inside. Dr. A. D. James.

In this issue appears the announcement of Dr. A. D. James as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in this, the 3rd Congressional District.

Dr. James is a native of this, Butler, county but removed to Muhlenburg county several years ago. He has served several times in the Kentucky Legislature and also in the State Senate. He was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1890 and 1891. He was one of the Commissioners to the World's Fair at Cincinatti. He served eight years as U. S. Marshal for Kentucky. He has made a faithful and competent officer in all these official stations. He is a strong man, a good campaigner and popular with the people. If he is our nominee we predict his triumphant election.

In speaking of him the Louisville Herald says: "Dr. James is one of the most prominent Republicans in the State, and has long been active in party affairs. He will at once enter upon an active campaign, and his friends are hopeful that he will be nominated without opposition.

If Dr. James is the party nominee in the Third District it is believed that he will experience little difficulty in defeating James McFaderson of Glasgow, the Democratic nominee who is seeking re-election. Being a political man of many years' experience, Dr. James knows what to put into a campaign to win, and his friends are confident that he will redeem the Third Congressional District to the Republican column.

Call in and see J. A. Tanner & Co. excellent values in men's and boy's low quarter shoes.

HARVEY LINCOLN MYERS.

Elsewhere in this issue will be seen the announcement of Harvey Lincoln Myers, of Rochester, Ky., as a candidate for Representative in this legislative district subject to the action of the Republican Primary to be held Nov. 6, 1906.

Mr. Myers is a Republican of the highest character.

Yours for success,

Baker Withdraws in Interest of Dr. A. D. James.

Muhlenburg County Will Present Former United States Marshal as Republican Candidate for Congress in Third

Central City Man Prefers Party Success to His Personal Ambition.

Mr. Baker's letter of withdrawal, in which he pledges himself to the advancement of the cause of Republicanism, is as follows: "Central City, Ky., July 9, 1906.—To the Republicans of the Third Congressional District: I hereby notify you that I withdraw from the race for the nomination for Congress.

I wish to heartily thank my friends for their loyalty and support. I have an opportunity to go into other business that promises to prove more beneficial to me than it would be to continue in the race.

I am also impressed by the growing sentiment of the voters of the district in favor of Dr. A. D. James. It is the consensus of opinion that he is the logical candidate; that he is the man most likely to defeat his Democratic opponent at the general election. This being the case and this being the belief of the voters, I bow in humble reverence to their will. I place my eloquence and loyalty to the Republican party above all considerations of self. My personal ambition shall never stand in the way of the success of the Republican party, for I am more than sure that in the continuation of the Republican party lies the future prosperity of this magnificent nation. The voters of the district feeling, as they do, that this nomination should go to Dr. James, I good naturally take myself out of the way, and pledge myself and all my friends to the advancement of the splendid cause of Republicanism.

Yours for success,

"GEORGE BAKER."

So Declares Judge Galloway

Butler Circuit Court—S. A. Anderson Plaintiff, vs. M. S. Ragland, C. Holman, and John Self, Chairmen, etc., Defendants.—Order Granting Temporary Injunction.

On July 3, 1906, at 10 o'clock a.m., before the undersigned Judge of the Eighth Judicial District, and of the Butler Circuit Court, sitting in chambers in the Circuit Court room in the courthouse in Bowling Green, Warren county, Kentucky, in said district, came the plaintiff in the above styled cause, by counsel, and filed a certified copy of petition herein, also notices to the defendants that a motion for a temporary injunction enjoining the defendants, M. S. Ragland, C. Holman and John Self, chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee and for the counties of Ohio, Butler, and Edwards respectively, from proceeding further in the giving of notice of the primary election in said counties as described in said petition, and from taking any steps to hold the same and from holding the same.

And said motion being heard and considered, and the Judge being so sufficiently advised, it is considered and adjudged that the act of the General Assembly of Kentucky approved March 23, 1906, entitled an act dividing the State into one hundred representative districts is unconstitutional and void and that the acts of the defendants thereunder are unauthorized and illegal.

And it is ordered that the said defendants, as such, as men, are and each of them enjoined from proceeding further in the giving of notice of the primary election ordered by them to be held in the counties of Ohio, Butler, and Edwards, November 6, 1906, to elect a Republican candidate for the office of member of the House of Representatives of Kentucky, at the regular election in November, 1906, to represent said counties, and from taking any steps to hold such primary and from holding the same.

It is about the limit of ordinary politeness when a gentleman gives up his seat to a lady in the street car. But it is reported that Secretary Taft is the politest man in the country for he always gives up his seat to three ladies at the same time.

"Darrell of the Blessed Isles," is a fascinating and thrilling story, so says a very competent judge of stories in this town whom we employed to read and pass judgement on the story.

Dick Croker says he hopes to live to see Bryan elected president of this country. Evidently Richard is no admirer of that good old type "I would not live always."

In the rush of congressional business, none of the correspondents have found time to assign Secretary Taft to the Supreme Bench for over a week.

If the President does not show up a bit, a lot of carpet-lions will not be left in condition to care whether he accepts the third term proposition or not.

JOHN ROBINSON'S TEN BIG SHOWS

COMBINED

WILL EXHIBIT AT

BEAVER DAM, July 20.

Indications are that a large crowd will attend from here. Very low excursion rates will be in effect on all railroads.

The show, under the management of John Robinson, is now enjoying its eighty-third year of prosperity, and is one of the foremost amusement attractions of America. If not of the world.

It numbers among its scenic favorites some of the most expensive and best acts that money can procure.

The Capt. Thomas' Dragoons of America, cavalrymen in expert feats of daring and original horsemanship; Devil Dancers, who sets at defiance all the fixed laws of nature when dashes down a dizzy declivity, and with the speed of a Hurricane loops the gap on a bi-cycle—the marvelously educated group of seals; under the master hand of Capt. Winslow; Edna, acknowledged Princess of the realm of beauty; the world's only lady somersault rider, and twenty equestrian associates; forty joyous subjects of King Momo in a gleeful merriment, and more than a hundred other foreign and American features in three rings and an elevated stage and introducing as an added feature King Solomon, His Temple and the Queen of Sheba, requiring a cast of a thousand men, women and children and horses, 100 ballet girls reproducing the dances of the day of the King of a thousand wives.

The old time method of purging the system—Cathartics that tear, grip and break down the walls of the stomach and intestines is superseded by Duke's Little Pill. Mr. Joe Birch's house burned Sunday. He lives near Rochester.

Guess Who.

The Robinson Show has always been famed for its manege, and this season finds the zoological annex the most complete ever carried by a tented show, comprising costly and rare animals from every section of the globe. This splendid array of animal talent will be seen in the big daily parade, pronounced by all the most gorgeous and elaborate pageants of modern times.

Impressive scenes more than a mile of gaily decorated wagons, chariots and bals of the most American horses. This is the only trust and no advance in the price will be made.

You can see the poison pine-woods close up or the kidnaps and bladders.

Single dose at bedtime will show you more poison upon rising the next morning than can be expelled from the system in any other way. Pineapple dissolves the impurities, lubricates the kidneys, closes the bladder, relaxes the pals and draws away with quick speed, pleasantly, permanently.

H. B. Morehead left for Greenville Sunday morning following the burial of his cousin, Miss Leslie Stokes, who died of consumption in New Mexico last week. The family had gone to New Mexico about a year ago with the hopes of the climate benefiting Miss Leslie's health.

Mr. A. C. Tanner and wife, of Hoosier, and Mrs. H. B. Morehead went up on last Thursday night's boat to be present at the graduating exercises of their brother, Prof. S. E. Tanner, at Cheshire Brother's School.

W. H. Austin returned a few days ago from a month's stay in Oklahoma. He visited his son Jas. F. Austin, at Weller, Oklahome, who owns some valuable land there for which he gave $1500 and has an offer of $1500. Uncle Bill is highly pleased with Oklahome and thinks it is the coming country of the nation.

Mrs. R. S. Rives gave a delightful dinner to a few friends and relatives at her pleasant home west of town at 6:30 on the evening of July 5th. The editor proudly acknowledged his invitation to be present with his wife, but on account of rural of business he was unable to attend. The latter however was present and did justice to the occasion which she pronounced an oasis in life's weary way. "Miss Dale," Mrs. Rives is commonly called, is noted for her ability as an entertainer. Those present wore Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rives and Master Paul Mendel Rives, of Louisville, Mrs. H. B. Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rives and Miss Lou. Rives. Other invited guests were unable to attend.

Killed by Lightning.

A very sad death was reported to us last week but too late for publication. Alfred Carroll aged about 21 years, living in the Carrick block, vicinity was struck and killed suddenly by lightning on the 4th day of July, while standing under a tree where he had taken shelter during a hard shower. The tree was badly split and splintered and the ground torn up by the terrific force of the bolt. Investigation showed that the current has passed the entire length of Mr. Carroll's body entering near the crown of his head and coming out at his toe. Doctor Tyler went up to the scene and held an inquest over the body, verdict being returned in accordance with above facts.

Not Spangled Hammer. Again, we proved a gross hit at the Mountain.

GLORIOUS WINNERS!
WAS THE 4TH

The Soldiers' Reunion
Proved a Record
Breaker

Fine Day! Big Crowd!

Grand Success!

Never in the history of Morgantown was there gathered within the corporate limits such a crowd for size, for intelligence, for good behavior, and for good looking people as assembled here at the Soldiers' Reunion, on the glorious Fourth of July.

The number is estimated at or near 7000. The weather was fine and pleasant, and at an early hour the people began to come in troops and battalions in every conceivable way. Excursion boats from up and down the river were loaded to their guards and had to haul in their stage links and refuse to take on any more passengers. Several hundred were thus disappointed at Rochester and other points and did not get to attend.

The exercises in the Court House yard, where a grand stand had been erected and seats arranged, were most successfully carried out to the letter and highly enjoyed by the vast throng. Singing and patriotic speeches were made by Col. W. A. Helm, Z. O. King, James Jones, Capt. Howard, Judge Holmes, and Judge E. P. James, all of which were attentively listened to and highly enjoyed.

The music and singing of patriotic songs by the Morgantown Glee Club was an especially attractive feature of the exercises and always caused a ruff on the grand stand.

The splendid good order which prevailed throughout the day was the mark of every one. Not a jar, not a clash-not a disorderly word, not an intoxicated person! All was peaceable, orderly, grand, magnificent.

At the camp fire in the afternoon the following officers of the Association were elected:

J. T. Wren, President.
W. O. Wallace, Vice-President.
Rev. Truman Chaplin, (Re-elected).
J. W. Coleman, Adjutant.
Zack Taylor, Commissary.

By a decisive vote Cromwell was chosen the lucky winner as the place for the meeting of the next Reunion, July 4, 1907.

Give us another Reunion or something just as good!

NOTES.

The patriotic spirit of the day was a great help to the Soldiers' Memorial Fund and the solicitors for same reaped a rich harvest.

Of course Uncle Jim Tom was a busy man that day and now he is happy.

Did you EVER see as many pretty women?

Did you ever see as many handsome men?

Well, we'll feed them better, next time.

The preparations for dinner were a little underestimated. This was the only unpleasant feature.

Well, what do our merchants and business men say now? Next time Uncle Jim goes to them for help for a big gathering: maybe they'll do a little better.

Peanuts! Popcorn! Chewing-gum and Candy!

Col. W. A. Helm's speech was the hit of the day. It was a hummer.

Let's be good and try to get another big gathering here this fall. Of course we will be more careful about the dinner next time.

The merchants had no kick coming when they had counted their cash.

District Conference.

The welcome address to the ministers and delegates of the Louisville District Conference will be delivered by Judge B. L. D. Gandy, Thursday morning July 19th at our first night's session.

The ministers of the various churches of the city are cordially invited to attend and take a part in the discussions.

The good colored people of Morgantown are sparing no pains in fixing up their homes to entertain the visiting delegates and ministers.

The church is a's prepared for the occasion for it has been newly seated.

At least one hundred delegates and ministers are expected to attend the happiness I feel after my running around in the crowded city at the home town, when I got back home and went out into the pure air of the open fields after my old cow in the cool evening shades of the hill was more than I can tell. Peace, quiet peace came over my soul. No one to molest me. The pure air the birds the heavenly calm was worth all my trip to the crowded city, and I set down on a green mossy bank to rest and said to myself "this is Homecoming right." and I just sat there and thought of it.

Thoughts of love are always sweet-and purest when we bathe ourselves in solitude. Did you ever notice that now some people think I am too old to talk of love but, you see they don't know.

But every rose has its thorn and I have been very unhappy since the soldiers' reunion. The reason is this:

every day or so somebody has come to me with grave tales on Joe as how the other grave speakers had captured the audience with their eloquence at the Reunion and as how Joe had just slipped around and captured a Confederate widow. Well, I saw none with my own eyes and there has got to be a straightening up of things.

ROYAL JOKERS.

Monarchs Whose Humor Was More
Strenuous Than Relaxed.

Alfonso VI, of Portugal, revelled in practicing so-called jokes on his subjects, favorite form of enjoyment being the waylaying and assaulting of passengers, firing into the coaches of his nobles and scattering religious processions at the point of the sword. Charles IX, of France had a favorite trick of hiring young thieves to relieve his guests as they sat at table of their swords and jewels, "laughing loudly as he witnessed their success or saw the unconsciousness of the victims or before their surprise and indignation after they had been stripped."

Queen Christina of Sweden was in her element when she could snatch the chair away as some dignified official or portly court lady was about to take a seat and found infinite entertainment in dressing herself as a gamin and making love in disguise to the young ladies of the court.

Frederick William I, of Prussia used to spend many hilarious hours at the Tobacco club, where his chief delight was to make his guests the butt of his practical jokes. A favorite victim was Jacob von Gundling, an eminent scientist, whom on one occasion his majesty ordered to read aloud certain abusive articles about himself which the king had sent to the daily papers, while by his side was placed a monkey dressed in exact imitation of the professor which he was compelled to embrace as his brother.

FRESH AIR IS LIFE.
And It Is Just as Necessary at Night as in the Daytime.

It is a life preserver. It is the particular friend of man and he who barricades the doors and windows against this life saving friend gives a cordial invitation to disease and death to enter.

Open the doors and windows and let the sunshine in, and let wind blow through the rooms every morning, for they are disinfector performing labor of a sanitary nature.

Breathe long and deep. Fill the lungs to their utmost capacity with pure air several times each day and keep the home well ventilated night and day, and remember that when night comes on all the air you have in or out of the house till the next morning is "night air," and you cannot breath air enough within the sleeping room to last through the night, so by all means let the air circulate through the room and thus keep a fresh supply of this life giving element constantly.

More fresh air is required during sleep than when awake, for increased quantities of poisonous products are given off from the lungs and skin at this time, so each respiration renders the air in an unventilated room more unfit to be breathed again.

Keep the windows sufficiently open so the fresh "night air" can come in from one side and the impure air can go out through the other.

Tombstone Inscriptions.

A visitor to the West cemetery at Litchfield, Conn., found the following interesting inscriptions on tombstones there:

"Here lies the body of Mary, wife of Dr. John Buel, Esq. She died Nov. 4th, 1768, aged 24, having had 13 children, 101 grandchildren, 214 great-grandchildren, 22 great-great-grandchildren, total, 410; 330 survive her."

Another: "Sacred to the memory of estimable worth of Unrivaled Excellence & Virtue, Mrs. Rachel, wife of Jerome B. Woodruff & daughter of Norman & Lois Barber, whose ethereal parts became a seraph. May 21, 1835, in the 22nd year of her age."

Editorial Reprint.

A friend of mine, a London editor, controls two daily papers and a farm in Warwickshire. There is a legend that the members of his staff who seek his special graces buy the editor's eggs. Do you know?—one of them, greatly daring, is reported to have said to him, "two of your eggs I had yesterday were not what you might call truly raw!" "Indeed!" said the editor grimly. "And that article of yours in yesterday's issue didn't seem to me quite new fad!"—Illustrated London News.

Love's Commandments.

1. Thou shalt have no other love but me. 2. Trust me all in all or not at all. 3. Thou shalt not dull me with satiety. 4. Wound me not with cruel words. 5. Thou shalt not bind me with fetters. 6. Guard me as the jewel of thy soul; for once lost I can never be regained. 7. Thou shalt not mistake thy fancies for me.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Benefit of Contrast.

"Do you think that industry is essential to happiness?"

"A little is," answered the easy going person. "If a man had never done any work he would never realize how much comfort there is in having none to do!"—Washington Star.

A hundred years ago the best physician would give you a medicine for your heart without stopping to consider what effect it might have on the liver. Even this good day cough and cold medicines invariably bind the bowels. This is wrong. Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup with Honey and Tar sets on the bowels—drives out the cold—cures the headache, relieves all coughs, cures and strengthens the mucous membranes of the throat and, in general, helps to cure.
